Business Tours

Business Tour #1 - Vancouver Port Authority

Port Metro Vancouver is Canada's largest and busiest port, a dynamic gateway for domestic and international trade and tourism, and a major economic force that strengthens the Canadian economy: <http://www.portmetrovancouver.com/en/about.aspx>.

Business Tour #2 - Burnaby Greenhouses

Established in 1955 in Burnaby, BC, Burnaby Lake Greenhouses Ltd. has grown from a small local family farm to a leading wholesale grower and shipper of live plants and cut flowers. With 1.8 million square feet of growing capacity, BLG offers a broad range of superior quality products at competitive prices. BLG has also become a leader in the introduction of new plant varieties as well as incorporating state-of-the-art production, energy-saving, and labour-saving technology: <http://www.burlake.com/>

Business Tour #3 - BC Hydro

Located within the picturesque Fraser Valley, the Stave Falls Powerhouse offers an exciting experience for all visitors. Walk back in time with interactive games and historic displays telling the story of how power has helped build British Columbia and view the impressive turbines and generators, which give a unique perspective on how electricity is made: http://www.bchydro.com/community/recreation_areas/stave_falls_visitor_centre.html

Call for Award Nominees

The CBFA Awards Committee (Becky Havens, 2012 Chair) is soliciting nominations for four annual CBFA awards. More information on each award can be found below. Please direct nominations or any questions about awards to Becky Havens.

The CBFA Teaching Award

The CBFA Teaching Award honors a member educator who displays Christ-likeness as an exemplary, transformational educator. Consider nominating a colleague by sending him or her the instructions and application materials; he or she will do the rest! A detailed document with instructions, guidelines, and an application form, can be downloaded by clicking here.

The Richard C. Chewning Award for Biblical Integration in Business

This award was established to perpetuate the passion and commitment of integrating personal faith and business modeled by Dr. Richard C. Chewning. Potential recipients should love the Word of God and manifest Christ-likeness in their scholarship and/or in the practice of teaching or serving in business. The integration of Christian faith in learning may be demonstrated through discovery, integration, application and/or teaching. For more information on the Chewning Award, click here.

The Sharon Johnson Award for Scholarship

This award was established by to perpetuate the passion and commitment of integrating personal faith and business modeled by Dr. Sharon G. Johnson. The Johnson Award recognizes God-honoring scholarly and intellectual contributions by individuals who incorporate learning, business and faith into a dynamic process to promote Christian faith integration in business. Specifically, the selection committee seeks scholars whose life and stream of scholarship honors God in its focus and scope, makes significant and meaningful contributions to thought and/or practice, opens new lines of research and writing, encourages others to engage in scholarly activity, and reflects a life lived in faith integration. For more information on the Johnson Award, click here.

The Barnabas Award for Service

This award was established to perpetuate the example of a 1st-century disciple, Barnabas, who exhibited many qualities necessary for keeping Christian organizations strong and vibrant. This award recognizes individuals who have served CBFA by being a Barnabas, exhibiting similar qualities, serving and participating joyfully and enthusiastically and contributing to CBFA's effectiveness and esprit de corps. Individuals should demonstrate qualities such as encouraging colleagues to join, serve, write, and flourish in the CBFA; accepting visible and hidden responsibilities with a servant's heart; building bridges and community within the organization; advancing the CBFA's effectiveness through expertise and new ideas; and steadfastly serving as an ambassador of the CBFA and its mission. For more information on the Barnabas Award, click here.
