

Accounting

Position

John Brown University, Soderquist College of Business, seeks a full-time faculty member in accounting beginning July 1, 2017. Responsibilities include but are not limited to teaching accounting courses, providing program support in undergraduate and graduate programs, advising, and committee service. The majority of teaching and advising will be undergraduate. Preference will be given to applicants with potential to teach in multiple business disciplines and multiple delivery methods. Limited travel is required as many graduate courses are taught at University and corporate locations within the region. The position reports to the Dean of the College of Business.

Program

The Soderquist College of Business includes the traditional undergraduate, degree completion, and graduate programs. Traditional undergraduate programs include majors in Accounting, Business Administration, International Business, Management, and Marketing, all delivered in a residential setting. Graduate Business Programs include the Master of Business Administration with emphases in Organizational Behavior and Market Research & Consumer Insights; and the Master of Science in Leadership and Ethics. Program delivery is on-site at locations in Arkansas and online. Adult degree completion programs include Business Administration, Organizational Leadership, and Management Accounting. Collectively, the College of Business is the largest portfolio of programs at JBU with continuing growth in enrollment and diversity. Training leaders with integrity, character, and trustworthiness based on a Christ-centered model is a priority. JBU business programs are accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP).

Qualifications

An earned doctorate with significant professional experience is strongly preferred. Master's degree required. CPA strongly preferred. Preference will be given to applicants with effective teaching experience in higher education and in multiple delivery methods. Evidence of scholarly engagement and a commitment to Christian higher education are essential.

Salary and Benefits

A competitive salary exists which will be commensurate with training and/or experience. In addition, we offer a comprehensive benefits package including 403(b), medical and dental insurance, tuition remission, maternity leave, and moving expenses.

Diversity

JBU desires to increase the diversity of its faculty, staff, and students to honor how all humans are created in the image of God, to reflect better the diversity of the Kingdom of God, to further our Christian commitment to justice, and to increase the quality of our educational experience. Applicants who bring diverse racial, ethnic, and gender perspectives to their teaching, scholarship, and work with students are encouraged to apply. For more information, visit our diversity webpage.

About JBU

A summary describing the university is available on-line.

Applications

Submit electronically a letter of interest and vita to academicaffairs@jbu.edu, John Brown University, Siloam Springs, AR. Phone: 479.524.7129. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

The employee is expected to adhere to all University policies.